

INITIAL CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

CMB/MCIN/BMB/MIP SPRING POSTER SYMPOSIUM

Friday, February 28, 2014

3:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Any research in the broad areas of Cell and Molecular Biology, Neuroscience or Microbiology completed at Colorado State University is appropriate for presentation. Abstracts should be submitted via email as a PDF to lori.williams@colostate.edu by 3:30pm on Friday, February 14, 2014.

All students or postdocs with an accepted abstract will be invited to present their posters between 3:00pm and 5:00pm. Cash awards will be given for the best poster presentations. To be eligible for an award: (1) the abstract MUST be turned in by the deadline; (2) the student or postdoc may present only ONE poster; and (3) the student or postdoc MUST BE PRESENT during the judging (3:30pm-6:00pm).

CMB students in their 3rd year and above are required to present a poster. CMB 2nd year students are encouraged to present a poster.

All accepted abstracts will be compiled into a PDF file that will be distributed through the CMB website. The abstract must contain a title, list of authors, department and graduate program affiliation(s), and text of not more than 300 words, as well as a clear description of the objectives, experimental design or procedures, findings, and conclusions. *The abstract must be typed using 12 pt Arial font, single spaced with one-inch margins, and fit on a single sheet of paper USING THE FOLLOWING FORMAT:

Dept or graduate program affiliation

Poster presenter name

(PLEASE MAKE TITLE IN ALL CAPS)

ANALYSIS OF MANNOSIDASE IN SUCCULENT YELLOW PUMPKINS

TRANSGENIC FOR PLANT PARVOVIRUS III.

John Doe and Mary Smith

Department of Plant Pathology, Colorado State University

The objective of . . .

Poster size is limited to 4'(h)x4'(w)

Further information is available at the CMB office, 220 Student Services or by telephone Lori Williams at 491-0241.